

ELIZABETH ROCKHILL MEMORIAL AWARD

Elizabeth Rockhill lived in Lansdale for over 30 years, and both of her children graduated from North Penn. She believed in the importance of travel, independent thinking and pursuing your own path rather than conforming to the expectations of others.

She loved spending time at the shore regardless of the season, and would want to support anyone studying a field that protects the ocean or environment. Elizabeth was an advocate for a college education but equally valued life experiences.

Her children respected and admired her capabilities as a single parent and are remembering her with this scholarship to help someone else continue their own journey.

Selection criteria:

This $500 scholarship will be awarded to the female candidate whose values align with Elizabeth's and is planning to study one of the following:

- Oceanography or a science related to sea life
- Senior care or nursing
- Neurology

To apply for this scholarship, please provide the following:

A completed application form (see attached)

An essay (no more than 500 words) on one of the topics below:

- Why did you pick the academic major that you are planning to study?
- Who is the woman who had the most positive influence on you?
- Name a woman you admire and why.

It is expected that the winner of this scholarship will use the funds to pursue post-high school educational goals.
